Friday 27th July
The Arches Olympic Night Special
6 – 9pm, The Arches (3)
As the Olympic Flame passes by, away we at The Arches will light our own flame in celebration of our 20th year. It will be a perfect opportunity share the Olympic spirit and to meet the artists and makers, and to buy or commission work from us. We make high quality fine art: design and crafts, and amongst us we have potters, ceramists, furniture makers, jewellers, painters and sculptors. There are a number of internationally established artists and makers at The Arches. So make your way down to the studios and enjoy a glass of wine on what promises to be a lively and energy-filled evening.

Garudio Studiague Lucky Skip and Studio Sale
6.30 – 9.30pm, Unit BGN, The Bussey Building (1)

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

The Last Refuge
The Last Refuge is a brand new multi-use arts space in Peckham Rye.

Founded only in December 2011, The Last Refuge comprises a theatre production company, screen production company, bar and rehearsal space. The last few months have seen three spaces in a beautiful old cricket bat factory completely renovated. In September 2012 our 92-seat theatre, the epicentre of our organisation, will be complete and we will open full-time. Prior to this our ‘empty space’ is playing host to visiting theatre companies, exhibiting artists, community projects and music events.

Dear Reader,
Here is a small piece of paper to let you know of some of the thoroughly exciting events that are taking place in the ever-lovely Peckham over the time of London’s Cultural Olympiad.

We are a collective of organisations and individuals, all with the aim of creating and exhibiting artistic projects of Peckham. This flyer lists just some of the exciting events happening in this corner of the South East in the fortnight beginning 26th July 2012 until mid August. We hope to see some new faces in our spaces, enjoying the events and getting to know those that have made them happen. Please see individual contributor’s websites for further details regarding timings of events and locations of venues.

See you soon!
