1. Introduction

We believe that Peckham has the potential to be a place where people aspire to live, work and shop.

We need to find ways to provide better access to and a wider choice of sustainable transport, homes, shops, community facilities and other community services. We need to do this whilst also protecting Peckham’s heritage and improving open spaces, the environment and community safety. This plan will be called Future Peckham.

Future Peckham will provide everyone that has an interest in Peckham an opportunity to influence and shape the future of the area.

This consultation strategy sets out how we will engage with residents, businesses, schools, community groups and people who share a common interest in making Peckham a better place to live, work and enjoy.

2. Background

A number of projects have been or are being carried out in and around Peckham where consultation with the community has taken place or will do in the future. It is important that when we develop Future Peckham we take account of the results of other consultation exercises so that any relevant comments or information can be fed into Future Peckham too. Examples of these projects, both past and present, include:

- Aylesbury Area Action Plan
  The Aylesbury Area Action Plan is being developed with an aim to redevelop to the Aylesbury Estate to provide a new high quality sustainable neighbourhood.

- Bellenden Renewal Project
  The renewal scheme started in 1997 and will run until 2007 and is focused on the renewal area of Bellenden (which includes the western side of Rye Lane), which has 78% private ownership in traditional Victorian terraces. The scheme provided access to funding for repairs to private properties and environmental improvements. It also has other aims, including community development, crime prevention and health promotion.

- Peckham Partnership
  The Peckham Partnership was one of the country’s largest regeneration programmes of its time. The project saw 2,500 homes on the old council estates demolished and over 2,000 new homes built and approximately £290 spent on local initiatives to improve Peckham. The Peckham Partnership came to an end in April 2002.

- Peckham Programme
  The Peckham Programme, is building on the successes of the Peckham Partnership by developing initiatives to improve the social and economic prospects of the local community. The Peckham programme is working with partners and local people to test new ideas and make sure services are delivered in a joined up way.

- Peckham town centre strategy/ Five Estates
  In 1994 two important strategies were produced: Peckham’s Town Centre Strategy and the ‘Five Estates’ Programme. Both of those documents attempted to enhance the attraction of Peckham town centre. The ‘Five Estates’ programme lasted until 2001, and invested £260 million, with the major focus being the remodelling of the north Peckham Estate. This programme involved the demolition of 3,000 new homes and the provision of 1,400 new homes for rent and shared ownership.

- Peckham Square
  The 1994 town centre strategy identified a number of actions to help to combat the problems of image and crime that Peckham was suffering. These included: development of opportunity sites; environmental improvements; traffic management and partnership working. The environmental improvements included the new Peckham Square in front of the library, gateway improvements, public art and the repaving of Moncrieff Place.

- Transport for London Initiatives

  Transport for London (TfL) are working on a range of transport related projects such as the Cross River Tram (where a section of the southern branch is expected to go through the Aylesbury Estate and Burgess Park and down through Peckham, although no final route has been determined) and Phase 2 of the East London Line which will provide Peckham with a metro style rail service to Clapham Junction to the East and Highbury and Islington to the North.

3. The purpose and objectives of this strategy

We have to carry out consultation in accordance with legal requirements and our Statement of Community Involvement. More details of these legal requirements are set out in appendix A. The purpose of this strategy is to make sure that we involve people in Future Peckham in a way that considers the needs of local people.

The objectives of this strategy are to:

- Let people know the process of developing the vision and plan for Future Peckham
- Make sure that people know when they can get involved in Future Peckham
- Set out how decisions are made in the process of developing the plan for Future Peckham
- Look at what is different about Peckham and how we can use this information to improve how we involve people
- Set out who needs to be involved in developing the vision and plan for Future Peckham
- Let people know how they can get involved in Future Peckham
- Outline the resources that we have to help involve people in Future Peckham
- Make sure that our consultation on Future Peckham contributes to eliminating discrimination, recognises diversity and promotes equality of opportunity and good community relations.
- Set out how people can get feedback on and comments that they make on Future Peckham
- Outline how we will monitor consultation to meet and exceed legal requirements and our commitment to community involvement as set out in the SCI.
4. What is the process and when will I be involved?

The diagram below sets out the process of preparing the plan for Future Peckham and tells you when you can get involved.

Our output

- What we produce
  - A scoping report for consultation
  - Store your comments on a database
  - An officer report to feedback how your comments have been taken into account.

The process

- Evidence gathering
  - This involves us gathering information about Peckham and understanding the key issues affecting the area.

- Getting the community fully involved
  - This involves letting you know what we are doing for Future Peckham and how you can be involved in developing the plan.

- Issues and Options
  - A consultation paper will be developed that looks at the many issues in Peckham, setting out different options for how change could take place.

- Preferred Option
  - Looking at what people have told us we will develop more detailed options for each of the issues facing Peckham.

- Final Option
  - Looking at what people have told us we will develop a final option for Future Peckham. This will be submitted to the Secretary of State and will be tested. We will be told whether we can adopt the plan or not and if any changes need to be made.

- Adoption
  - Once the Secretary of State has approved the plan we will adopt and implement the plan.

Your involvement

- What you do
  - You were given the opportunity to comment on this from November 2006 to February 2007. You will be given further opportunity to comment at later stages.

- What you do
  - You can tell us what you think about and comment on the issues and options paper.
  - You can comment on the preferred options.

- What you do
  - You can comment on the final option for Future Peckham.

High Influence on vision and plan for Future Peckham

Low influence
5. What is the decision making process?

As with most projects, there is a structured decision making process that must be followed at each stage of developing the plan for Future Peckham. This is set out in the diagram below:

Stage

- Evidence gathering
  - What gets reported?
    - A planning report a report to the executive member for regeneration
    - The scoping report
    - A consultation plan
  - Who is the decision maker?
    - The Peckham Community Council and the Peckham Rye and Nunhead Community Council make comment on the scoping report
    - Planning committee make comment on the scoping report
    - The Executive member for regeneration makes the final decision as to whether or not the scoping report is ready for consultation.

- Issues and Options
  - What gets reported?
    - A report to both community councils, planning committee and the executive member of regeneration
    - The issues and options paper
    - A consultation plan for the issues and options paper
    - The equalities impact assessment (stage 1)
    - A report with all of the comments received on the scoping report papers together with officer comments of how these have been taken into account.
  - Who is the decision maker?
    - The Peckham Community Council and the Peckham Rye and Nunhead Community Council make comment on the issues and options paper
    - Planning committee make comment on each issue and options paper
    - The Executive member for Regeneration makes the final decision as to whether or not each issues and options paper is ready for consultation.

- Final Option
  - What gets reported?
    - A report to both community councils, planning committee, the executive and council assembly
    - The final options for Future Peckham
    - A consultation plan
    - A equalities impact assessment (stage 2)
    - A report with all of the comments received on the preferred options papers together with officer comments of how these have been taken into account.
    - A sustainability report
  - Who is the decision maker?
    - The Peckham and Peckham Rye and Nunhead Community Councils comment
    - Planning committee comment
    - Executive decides whether to approve the final option for consideration by council assembly.
    - Council assembly makes the final decision as to whether or not the final options is ready for consultation and submission to the Secretary of State

- Adoption
  - What gets reported?
    - A report to both community councils, planning committee, the executive and council assembly
    - The inspectors report from any examination in public.
    - The final plan for Future Peckham
    - A equalities impact assessment (stage 2)
    - A sustainability report
  - Who is the decision maker?
    - The Peckham and Peckham Rye and Nunhead Community Councils make comment
    - Planning committee make comment
    - Executive makes the final decision as to whether or not the final plan can be adopted.
    - Council assembly makes the final decision to adopt the final plan for Peckham.
6. What is different about Peckham?

By looking at what is different about Peckham in comparison to the rest of Southwark we can make sure that we tailor our consultation on Future Peckham in a suitable way. This should help to make sure that everyone has an opportunity to be involved.

The following information is based on the two Community Council (CC) areas of Peckham and Nunhead and Peckham Rye.

Age
- Peckham has a younger age structure compared to the rest of Southwark and has the highest proportion of younger residents (those aged 15 and under) than any other area
- Peckham has the lowest proportion of older residents.
- Nunhead and Peckham Rye has the second highest proportion of older people in the borough.

Ethnicity
- Peckham has the highest proportion of Black residents and the second highest proportion of Chinese residents in Southwark.
- Peckham has the lowest proportion of White British and Asian residents in Southwark
- Nunhead and Peckham Rye has the highest proportion of Mixed groups in the borough and the second highest proportion of Black Caribbean residents
- Nunhead and Peckham Rye and the lowest proportion of Chinese residents.

Country of birth
- Peckham has the lowest proportion of people born in England in Southwark
- In Nunhead and Peckham Rye, over two-thirds of people were born in England, which is higher than average in Southwark

Religion
- About two-thirds of people in Peckham and Nunhead and Peckham Rye are Christians.
- Peckham has the highest proportion of Buddhists and second highest proportion of Muslims.
- Peckham has the lowest proportion of Jewish people and those with no religion
- Nunhead and Peckham Rye has the second highest proportion of Jewish people in Southwark but the lowest proportion of Sikh people.

What does this mean for consultation?

This may mean that additional resources need to be targeted at engaging and involving:
- Young people in Peckham
- Elderly people in Peckham and Peckham Rye and Nunhead
- BME communities.
- Communities whose first language is not English, especially in the Peckham area. The main languages identified as being spoken quite widely in and around the Peckham area are Spanish, Urdu, Turkish, French, Yoruba, Cantonese, Mandarin, Bengali, Vietnamese, Portuguese, Somali and Amoric. At the very least, all written information will include details of the council’s interpreter and translation service but in appropriate circumstances information will be translated into these languages to pro-actively engage with these communities.
- Religious communities to understand their needs, specifically the Christian, Buddhist, Muslim and Jewish communities.
7. Who needs to be involved?

To make sure that the plan and vision for Future Peckham developed and put into action, everyone that has an interest in Peckham needs to be involved. This is because we need to make sure that we include all of the issues, discuss all of the options and understand everyone’s ideas for making Peckham a better place. Generally, we know that the following groups, communities and partnerships will have an interest in Peckham:

- Neighbouring boroughs;
- Neighbouring community councils who may benefit from improvements to Peckham;
- Heritage associations and groups;
- Environmental associations and groups;
- Transport agencies and providers;
- Health authorities and partnerships;
- Utility providers;
- Housing providers;
- Residents and residents groups;
- Voluntary and community groups;
- Businesses and traders;
- Amenity groups;
- Black and minority ethnic communities;
- Faith groups;
- Educational establishments;
- Leisure and entertainment providers;
- Gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender communities;
- Disabled groups and individuals;
- Older people;
- Youth groups;
- Traveller and gypsy population;
- Refugee and asylum seekers.

Appendix B sets out in detail groups, organisations and partnerships that we currently known about and who we think need to be involved in Future Peckham. This list is not necessarily complete.

ACTION!!!! If you are part of or know of any more groups or organisations that you think need to be added to the list in Appendix B list please let us know!
8. How will I be involved?

We will make sure that we use information, consultation and participation to engage and involve people in developing a vision and plan for Future Peckham.

Fact box 1: Information

We provide information about what we have done, what we are currently are doing or what we are plan to do in the future. This information could be about:

- Processes for developing plans and projects
- Plans to involve people in decision making and consultations
- Services and resources available to help people get involved
- Timeframes of when things will happen
- Documents and what they are about
- Decisions that have been made or when they are going to be made
- Feedback on why certain actions have been taken or/and decisions have been made

Giving information important to make sure that that people understand what Future Peckham is and why it is important for them to get involved. For Future Peckham information will be provided both face to face and in writing by:

- Giving presentations at the Peckham and the Nunhead and Peckham Rye Community Councils and other local meetings
- Providing the call centre with up-to-date information and the community with accurate phone numbers so that key information can be given over the phone;
- Having stalls with information at local events;
- Emailing updates to mailing list and using email for information requests;
- Circulating regular briefing notes to our mailing list;
- Putting articles in local newsletters and press;
- By appearing on local radio stations such as Radio Peckham;
- Publishing information on our website and other local websites;
- Having exhibitions and displays in local public areas and buildings;
- Putting up posters in public buildings and local notice boards;
- Producing and distributing leaflets and flyers;
- Displaying documents in libraries, one-stop-shops and local council offices;
- Sending out letters to our mailing list.

All written information and verbal presentations will be in conformity with the requirements set out in the council’s Statement of Community Involvement, which says that it:

- Should be in clear and plain English;
- Acronyms, abbreviations and jargon will be avoided and definitions provided for technical issues;
- Should include details of the council’s interpreter and translation service for the main languages identified in Southwark;
- Should be available on request in large fonts, Braille or audiotape;

The detailed ways in which this information will be provided is contained within appendix D.
Fact box 2: Consultation

Consultation is where we seek people’s opinion on a clearly defined issue or a number of issues. We will present the issue/issues to the community and invite people to comment on them. The comments that people give to us are then recorded and are considered when making decisions about how to deal with the issue/issues.

A number of methods will be used to consult people in developing and preparing the vision and plan for Future Peckham by:
- Having virtual notice boards, virtual forums, on line representation forms and questionnaires on our website;
- Organising workshops;
- Organising focus groups;
- Attending, organising and/or participating in public events and public exhibitions.
- Producing and distributing documents that people can respond to;
- Holding special community council's in the local area on the PAAP;
- Using text messaging service;
- Having interactive broadcasts on local radio.

The detailed ways in which consultation will be carried out is contained in appendix D.

ACTION!! If you:
- Know about local meetings where people want to know about Future Peckham
- Want to attend local meetings/workshops to talk about Future Peckham
- Know about any events and/or exhibitions that are being held in Peckham
- Know about any websites that are used by local people
- Have any other ideas about how we can consult with local people about Future Peckham

Let us know about it!!

Fact box 3: Participation

Participation is where we involve people in the preparation of a plans and proposals. People are involved at an early stage of the process so that they can have more influence on shaping how the plan and proposals are developed.

A number of methods will be used to promote participation. Many of these methods are the same as those used for consultation.

The detailed ways in which participation will be promoted is contained within appendix D.

Branding

Documents and other written materials such as leaflets and posters will be designed and written in a specific way so that people are able to recognise what information is about Future Peckham. The way in which they are designed will have to be in line with our corporate style guide.
9. What are the resources?

To prepare and develop the vision and plan for Future Peckham resources, such as staff and money will need to be identified so that we can involve and engage the community effectively. There are three dedicated officers that are responsible for coordinating the work and consultation carried out on Future Peckham. As well as this, a number of other officers from across the council will be involved in working together to coordinate and combine resources. When planning how we carry out consultation on Future Peckham we will specifically seek help and advice from the

- Community Involvement and Development Unit;
- Social Policy Unit;
- Community engagement officers working group;
- Communications officers from the Peckham Programme and Planning and Transport Division;
- Departmental lead officers for equalities;
- Housing and resident involvement officers.

We will use a number of existing consultation forums, organisations, networks and local publications in and around the Peckham area to give out information and encourage community involvement in Future Peckham. These include:

- Consultation forums such as Community Council’s and Area Housing Forums;
- Publications such as Southwark Life and the Peckham Programme Newsletter;
- Existing networks such as Southwark Action for Voluntary Organisations (SAVO) and the Peckham Society.

A list of local publications and websites are contained within Appendix E.

Action!!

If you know of any more local publications or websites let us know!
10. Engaging with diverse and excluded communities

Fact box 4: Equalities Impact Assessments

We need to make sure that we consider the different ways that our plans and proposals can have on people depending on their race and ethnicity, gender, disability, sexual orientation, faith and belief and their age. These are called our equality target groups.

Equalities Impact Assessments (EQiAs) are used to assess the impacts of our plans and proposals. These assessments are then evaluated by our Equalities and diversity Panel and their advice provided to officers and decision makers.

All EQiAs are included in reports taken to decision makers to make sure they are aware of the any impacts that the plan or proposals could have and the actions that are proposed to help eliminate discrimination and promote equality of opportunity and good race relations.

There are a number of diverse and excluded communities (often referred to as ‘hard-to-reach' groups) that experience difficulties in getting involved. Through the process of preparing the vision and plan for Future Peckham, we will need to engage the following diverse and excluded communities:

- Disabled people
- Traveller communities
- BME communities
- LGBT people
- Older people
- Low income families
- Religious/faith groups
- Women
- Young people
- Homeless people
- People with caring responsibilities
- Refugees and asylum seekers.

Appendix D of our Statement of Community Involvement identifies a number of barriers that can prevent people from getting involved and ways to overcome them. These will be considered when we are carrying out consultation so that everyone is given a equal opportunity to contribute and influence the vision and plan for Future Peckham.

11. How will feedback be given?

We will give feedback to people about reasons for certain outcomes and decisions so that people can understand the value and influence of their contributions in developing the vision and plan for Future Peckham. It is also important that people that are involved in Future Peckham are able to give us feedback too on how we are involving them.

We will make sure that:

- All written comments received at any stage of Future Peckham will be sent a written acknowledgement via email or letter;
- All people that have been involved and have requested that they be included on the mailing list will be sent updates through newsletters and/or letters/email of progress of Future Peckham
- The webpage will be kept up to date with key information including comments (including officer comments) and key dates such as dates of council meetings where the PAAP will be considered;
• All written comments made to the council will be considered in preparing the next stage of Future Peckham. These comments will be stored in a database and an officer will consider and provide a response to each comment about how each comment as influenced the plan. All representations and officer comments will be made available on the PAAP webpage on the council’s website and to key decision makers;
• Feedback will be given face to face through community council meetings and other meetings and events.

You can give us feedback by:
• Giving formal feedback through written comments on consultation documents or on community involvement;
• Giving informal feedback, for instance on the running of an event or meeting or on the quality or printed information or verbal presentations.

Comment forms will be made available on the website, through written correspondence and at all meetings and events that we attend. These forms will ask if people are satisfied with the consultation. We will consider all of the feedback that you give to us to try and improve things if necessary.

12. Monitoring

We will monitor the consultation that do on Future Peckham to make sure that we can try to improve how we do things. We will do this by recording:
• the number of people involved in Future Peckham,
• their demographic information in terms of their age, ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation and religion/belief.
• where participants live
• feedback given to us about the consultation.

In addition to this we will also set targets on a number of things like how many people we think need to be involved, how many meetings we should attend, how many bulletins we should produce. These targets will be based on minimums and we will always look for ways to exceed them where possible. This will give us ‘baseline’ where we can measure how we are doing. These targets are set out in appendix C and D.

All of this information will be used to improve how we carry out consultation and will make sure that we focus our resources in areas where we need to most.

Appendix B – What are the tests of Soundness for a Development Plan Document

Procedural
- It has been prepared in accordance with the local development scheme;
- It has been prepared in compliance with the statement of community involvement, or with the minimum requirements set out in the Regulations where no statements of community involvement exists;
- The plan and its policies have been subjected to sustainability appraisal;

Conformity
- It is a spatial plan which is consistent with national planning policy and in general conformity with the regional spatial strategy for the region or, in London the spatial development strategy and it has properly had regard to any other relevant plans, policies and strategies relating to the area or to adjoining areas;
- It has regard to the authority’s community strategy;

Coherence, consistency and effectiveness
- The strategies/policies/allocations in the plan are coherent and consistent within and between development plan documents prepared by the authority and by neighbouring authorities, where cross boundary issues are relevant;
- The strategies/policies/allocations represent the most appropriate in all the circumstances, having considered the relevant alternatives and they are founded on a robust and credible evidence base;
- There are clear mechanisms for implementation and monitoring; and
- The plan is reasonably flexible to enable it to deal with changing circumstances.
