

PECKHAM TREASURE HUNT

DATES

street culture

Wednesday 3rd September, 4-7:30pm

The first Treasure Hunt organised by architects What if: projects will focus on street culture along Rye Lane and the station neighbourhood. We want to find out more about the hidden and less obvious aspects of cultural life in the centre of Peckham.

play in the centre of Peckham

Friday 12th September, 4-7:30pm

We want to find the places where people play in the centre of Peckham. Both children and adults are welcome to join us at this weeks playful expedition of the obvious and the hidden with choreographer and dancer Heidi Rustgaard (h2dance) and Ulrike Steven (What if: projects).

local history

Wednesday 17th September, 4-7:30pm (tbc)

Layers of Peckham's rich local history will be explored through personal stories and hidden places during this weeks treasure hunt with designer Donna Walker (Traces) and Liam Morrissey (What if: projects).

nature in the centre of Peckham

Tuesday 23rd September, 4-6pm

We will find all things natural and observe the treasured green areas and small pockets of wilderness in the centre of Peckham.

Peckham in the dark

Friday 3rd October, 8pm-late

An expedition into the night with choreographer and dancer Heidi Rustgaard (h2dance) and the What if: projects team. Where and what are the hidden treasures and people magnets of Peckham in the dark?

shop on Rye Lane

Friday 10th October, 4-7:30pm

We will explore shopping on Rye Lane. What can you buy and where is it from?

made in Peckham

Wednesday 15th October, start at 4-7:30pm

What is made in Peckham? We will be searching for all things made or produced in the centre of Peckham.

public spaces in Peckham

Saturday 18th October, start at 3-6:30pm

What do people do in public spaces in Peckham? How do people from the diverse cultures who work, live or visit the Rye Lane use public spaces?
