The New Southwark Plan (NSP) is out for consultation, until midday on Monday 12th February. This is the final version from the Council and they aim to submit it to the Government in April for the Examination in Public (EiP) sometime between June and possibly November 2018.

You can download a copy here: <https://goo.gl/c1TjFS>

Only people or organisations who send in written comments saying the NSP is not legal or sound for specific reasons, and in the right format by 12th February, will be able to speak at the Public Hearings if the Inspector invites them.

Southwark Planning Network (SPN) in partnership with Community Southwark and Southwark Law Centre are holding a series of workshops in January to support local residents and community organisations through the process.

Some of the Key areas that you might want to comment on

- Housing - protecting existing homes, provision of affordable and social housing, rented housing, family homes, and student housing
- Local economy - loss of industrial land, supporting high streets, creative industries, enterprises and small businesses including retail Southwark Planning Network is preparing evidence re the loss of industrial land across the borough so please note carefully which sites in your neighbourhood are losing industrial land and how much.
- Environment - extent of tall buildings, protection of heritage, open & green spaces, provisions for flooding, air quality, avoiding fuel poverty
- Health & wellbeing - including examining the new policies for 'social regeneration
- People & groups - impact on and provision for existing residents, families & children, young people, older people, disabled people, mental health, equalities, gypsies & travellers.

Template for comments: To help in this process, we are preparing a template to use to submit comments. This will be available at the workshops and on websites

Preparation for the workshop

You can get a paper copy of the NSP by emailing planningpolicy@southwark.gov.uk and arranging to pick it up at Tooley Street or asking them if they will post it. There are also copies available in Libraries for reference.

We suggest that you read carefully the pages for your neighbourhood(s) which contain the Area Vision and all your area's development sites.

-You will find these in pages 94-335 in the NSP

- You can find a pdf for your neighbourhood to download and print here:

http://www.southwarkcan.org/nsp_final_version

Identify what you think should be changed, and why, in the Area Vision and/or any sites that you know, and write some text for that, and keep a careful note of the page number and NSP section number references. Bring a typed draft of this text, even if rough, with you to the workshop
