No Town Hall (southwark) by CRISIS

Lyrics:

It's sacrifice for you with your backs to the wall
and they want to build a new town hall.
You do the work, they get the loot,
the men with the smiles and the three-piece suits.
On the radio every night,
'Greedy workers going on strike'
They just want a little more right to be proud.
They don't want seventy million pounds.
Democracy's a baby been gagged by red tape.
Democracy's a baby aborted by the state.
We want homes, homes for all.
We don't want Southwark's Town Hall.

Democracy's a baby been gagged by red tape.
Democracy's a baby aborted by the state.
We want homes, homes for all.
We don't want your Town Hall.

No Town Hall No.

What others say...

“Crisis walks a line between early incarnations of post-punk, experimental art punk and edgy anarcho styles.”

“A rare punk rock vinyl, record, 7" single by Crisis (in support of Peckham Action Group) with 'No Town Hall (Southwark)' on side A, with 'Holocaust' and 'PC One Nine Eight Four' on side B. Released in 1979 and the first release on and by Action Group Records”

“Crisis were considerably more successful than the average band issuing their own records in 1979/80.”

“...as a single The No Town Hall EP (Peckham Action Group Records 1979) is excellent and very approachable musically...”

What others say...

“The lyrics are a product of the time against a backdrop of street fights with the National Front, violence at gigs, institutional racism within the police force, class division, industrial strife, sexual repression... Upon reflection not much has really changed in the last 35 years!”
